How is Pashmina Bazar different!!!

Pashmina Shawls, Stoles and more!!

We at Pashmina Bazar believe that authenticity and originality triumphs all in Business. We believe that the only reason for Pashmina to have survived this long in spite of the numerous cheaper variations produced else where, lies in the true hard work and dedication of the local Kashmiri artisans who never give up on their rich cultural and historical roots. We believe that since we create our shawls in Kashmir and you receive them straight from our shipping location in Kashmir, we have preserved the Pashmina you own from the different permutations and variations. We do not believe in importing Pashminas from sources and never understanding where and how they were made. The true triumph of our business is the direct connection you feel when you hold your Pashmina, with the history and culture that went into shaping what it is.
